NOTE FOR ORDERS.

Petition of Parvatamma praying for some help for her maintenance

One Parvatamma daughter of Doogere Nanjunda Sastri, represents that her husband died when she was young and that since then she was under the protection of her father who she says & her mother also died a few years ago. She appears to have been undergoing very great difficulties to maintain herself and the two children of her deceased sister depending upon her. As she is in a destitute and helpless condition she prays that the Govt. graciously please

Some rice allowance from the Sreeranagapatam Chattram for the maintenance of herself in her old age and the children entirely depending upon her

Submitted to the Dewan

Sir

I have ascertained that this is a really deserving case, and beg therefore to respectfully recommend that an allowance of one seer of rice daily (with condiments) may be sanctioned, to the Pelur from the Sreerangapatam Chattram. 24/11/03

Yes during her life time
I suppose.
